INDUSTRIAL MARKETING MANAGEMENT

The International Journal of Organizational Marketing

Volume 16

CONTENTS

1 Industrial Barter and Countertrade
A survey of barter among large British firms
David Shipley and Bill Neale

9 Segmentation and Positioning in a Basic Industry
Surviving in a troubled industry
Mark L. Bennion, Jr.

19 Will a Specialty Business Become a Commodity Business?
The focus and strategies determine the positioning
James S. Wallis

25 When to Bid for Government Contracts
Marketing strategies for determining when to submit a bid
M. Edward Goretsky

35 Breakeven Analysis with Semifixed Costs
Semifixed costs should be part of most industrial decisions
Thomas L. Powers

43 Computer Usage in Distributor Marketing
Computer marketing applications by industrial distributors
James A. Narus and Tor Guimaraes

55 Couple Competitive Analysis to Sales Force Decisions
A new way to evaluate sales force performance
Daniel C. Smith and John E. Prescott

63 Advertising Budgeting Practices of Industrial Advertisers
Budgeting sophistication is increasing in larger U.K. firms
James E. Lynch and Graham J. Hooley

71 Comparative Advertising in Horizontal Business Publications
A significant increase in comparative advertising
Linda F. Swayne and Thomas H. Stevenson

77 Book Review
David L. McChesney: Sourcebook of Global Statistics 1985 (George Thomas Kurian)

79 Separate Prices as a Marketing Tool
The practice of charging customer groups different prices
Michael H. Morris

87 The Competitive Bidding Process: Beyond Probability Models
Few managers see value in statistical bidding models
Paul D. Boughton

95 Market Segmentation Practices of Exporting Companies
Most companies do segment their international markets
Camille P. Schuster and Charles D. Bodkin

103 Developing the Strategic Plan
Linkages between strategic planning and market plans
Joel E. Ross and Ronnie Silverblatt

109 Keys to New Product Success and Failure
Six reasons for new product success and failure
Peter L. Link

119 Identifying Buying Influences for a Professional Service: Implications for Marketing Efforts
Buying roles and influences for marketing CPA services
Susan A. Lynn

131 A Method to Portray and Analyze Sales Performance
Practical ratios for evaluating sales results
Dick Berry

145 Students' Perceptions of Personal Selling
Identifying and overcoming negative images of selling
William A. Weeks and Darrel D. Muehling

153 What British Distributers Dislike About Manufacturers
Why specialty distributors are often dissatisfied with vendors
David Shipley

163 Factory Salesmen's Roles with Industrial Distributors
A business advisor role is emerging for factory salesmen
Allan J. Magrath and Kenneth G. Hardy

169 Switching From Reps to Direct Salespeople
When is it desirable to change from a rep to direct sales force?
Thomas L. Powers

173 The Value of Company Newsletters and Magazines
Customers value this source of information
Harrie Vredenburg and Cornelia Droge

179 The Readability of Sales Training Manuals
Use the Fox Index to assess your sales training material
Peter F. Kaminski and Gary L. Clark

185 Telephone Qualification of Sales Leads
A problem-solving script is key to qualifying leads
Herbert E. Brown and Roger W. Brucker

191 Referrals Between Professional Service Providers
Criteria that accountants, attorneys, and bankers use to refer clients to other professionals
Kent Wheiler

201 The Salesman's Job in Competitive Bidding Situations
Five key tasks of the salesman with bidding opportunities
Stuart St.P. Slatter

207 Linking R&D to Market Needs
The use of product attribute analysis
David T. Wilson and Morry Ghingold

215 Success Factors in Product Innovation
Better product selection and process management
R.G. Cooper and E.J. Kleinschmidt

225 Customer Service as a Competitive Tool
Few firms actively use customer service as a competitive tool
Myroslaw J. Kyj

231 Is Industrial Advertising Sexist?
Sexist advertising is declining
Nancy A. Reese, Thomas W. Whipple, and Alice E. Courtney

241 Differentiate With the 5th P: People
Create customer differentiation through your employees
Vaughan C. Judd

249 Using Trade Missions for Export Market Entry
Trade mission are important in foreign market entry
F. H. Rolf Seringhaus

257 Industrial Market Research in India
State of the art and emerging trends in India
Sharad Sarin

265 Transferring Industrial Technology to Less Developed Countries
How to devise a technology transfer system
Leslie M. Dawson

273 Selecting Sales and Distribution Channels
Think through the choices before setting policies
Allan J. Magrath and Kenneth G. Hardy

279 Salespeople's Use of Entertainment and Gifts
Practices among industrial and consumer salespeople
Robert E. Hite and Joseph A. Bellizzi

287 How Purchasing Agents Handle Personal Risk
Nine risk-handling tactics
Jon M. Hawes and Scott H. Barnhouse

295 What Types of Profitability Reports do Marketing Managers Receive?
Many firms are flying half-blind
Douglas M. Lambert and Jay U. Sterling

305 A Method to Improve Response to Industrial Mail Surveys
The total design method to developing and mailing questionnaires
Bruce J. Walker, Wayne Kirchmann, and Jeffrey S. Conant

315 Author Index to Volume 16

Volume Contents